Maurice Snelgrove

Urban and Rural Wilderness, with emphasis on the initial act of drawing, making use of pen/markers, especially with the urban/city paintings, and incorporating this into the finished painting.

Maurice Snelgrove worked for 15 years as artist, advertising designer and art director prior to a 30 year secondary school teaching career with the Scarborough Board of Education in Visual Arts.

Since retiring in 2000 Maurice continues to share his love of watercolour; travelling, painting and exhibiting with colleagues and painter friends; conducting painting workshops, jurying and critiquing for art groups throughout the province and sharing art enthusiasms with adult 'students'.
